

Certificate III in Individual Support (CHC33021)

Specialisations: Ageing, Disability

What's it all about?

The Certificate III in Individual Support reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who provide person-centred support to people who may require it due to ageing, disability or some other reason. In addition to developing the necessary skills for providing physical support and personal care, you will also learn how to help foster independence and wellbeing of those you support and assist them to live a full life.

When enrolling into this qualification you will enrol into one of the following specialisations:

- Ageing
- Disability
- Ageing & Disability

Who should do this qualification?

The Certificate III in Individual Support is ideal for those who are committed to providing genuine support and care to empower those who are aged and/or have a disability.

Possible career choices relevant to this qualification include:

- Aged Care Worker
