

Provide First Aid (HLTAID011)

What's it all about?

The HLTAID011 Provide First Aid course covers the necessary skills and knowledge to provide first aid response in a variety of situations (including community and workplace settings).

Our First Aid programs are designed to be both time efficient, effective and highly interactive. We offer diverse program formats where students can participate in a public program, or a Corporate Program delivered in-house and customised for your organisation.

Topics covered in this unit:

- Respond to an emergency situation
- Apply appropriate emergency first aid procedures
- Communicate details of the incident
- Evaluate the incident and own performance

Program Delivery

This one day course is delivered and assessed by an industry subject matter expert, within a traditional classroom environment.
